

Biography

Velota Sung FRCS(Ed), FRCOphth, MSc(Warwick)

Velota Sung is a consultant ophthalmologist and glaucoma specialist at the Birmingham and Midland Eye Centre, Birmingham, UK since 2004. He is a specialist in complex glaucoma management including childhood glaucoma and uveitic glaucoma. He is an expert in angle surgery and tube-shunt implant surgery. His research interests are anterior segment imaging in angle closure, and optimising outcome in glaucoma tube-shunt implant surgery. He published widely in topics on glaucoma surgeries. He has contributed as faculty member in many international conferences. He is a co-founder and serving co-secretary of UK Paediatric Glaucoma Society.

